

Contents

Acknowledgements	4
Executive Summary	5
Introduction	7

Part

1

Background

DSEZ project

Current status of the project

Project locations

Industrial estate area and port (inside the DSEZ boundaries)

Near the DSEZ area

Road links

Water supply reservoir

Research Methodology

Findings

Livelihoods of those affected by the DSEZ projects

Lowland villages

Roadlinks: upland villages

Water supply reservoir: Kalonehtar

Non land related livelihoods in the affected areas

Incomes in affected areas

Summary

Losses and impacts reported

Processes of land confiscation

Access to information

Printed materials and documentation

Knowledge of the project

Meaningful consultation

Community meetings

Lack of consent

Intimidation by officials

Meaningless consultation and image building

Compensation

Information on compensation process and entitlements

Payment of compensation

Receipts	46
Amounts of compensation	47
Alignment of compensation with international standards for involuntary resettlement	50
Use of compensation payments	50
Preparing for the future	52
Resettlement arrangements	53
Case studies of displacement	56
Summary of findings	57

Part

3

International, regional, and domestic legal obligations, standards, and responsibilities

Fundamental human rights	60
Right to adequate standard of living	62
Right to housing and protection from forced evictions	63
Right to information, participation, and adequate compensation	64
Right to education	66
Indigenous peoples' rights	66
State responsibility and extra-territorial obligations	67
Business and human rights	67
Regional standards	68
Thai domestic law	69
Myanmar domestic law	70
Commitments to displaced persons from responsible parties	72

Part

4

Conclusion	75
------------	----

Recommendations	76
-----------------	----

Annex I: Dawei Deep Seaport & SEZ, Chronology of Events 2008-2013	79
Annex II: Submission to the Thai Human Rights Commission	85