

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements .....	ii
Foreword .....	iii
List of Tables .....	vi
List of Figures .....	vii
Executive Summary .....	viii
Overview .....	viii
Aims of the project .....	viii
Background .....	ix
Main findings .....	x
Conclusions .....	xiv
Section 1.0 Introduction .....	1
1.1 Setting the scene .....	1
1.2 What is drink spiking? .....	1
1.3 Why is it important to investigate drink spiking? .....	3
1.4 Identifying the nature and extent of drink spiking .....	3
1.5 What will be included in this report .....	13
Section 2.0 Building the empirical evidence base on drink spiking .....	15
2.1 Police data .....	15
2.2 Centre Against Sexual Assault (CASA) data .....	26
2.3 AIC drink spiking hotline .....	29
2.4 Estimating the prevalence of drink spiking in Australia .....	46
2.5 What evidence is there that drugs are used in drink spiking? .....	51
2.6 Pulling it all together .....	55
Section 3.0 Discussions with stakeholders and emergent themes .....	60
3.1 Liquor Industry .....	61
3.2 Police .....	65
3.3 Sexual assault agencies .....	71
3.4 Service providers for the gay community .....	76
3.5 Hospitals and medical centres .....	79
3.6 Forensic scientists and physicians .....	81
3.7 Government sector / Other stakeholders .....	86
3.8 Conclusions .....	90
Section 4. Prosecuting drink spiking offenders .....	93
4.1 Laws available in Australia to prosecute drink spiking offenders .....	93
4.2 How are these laws applied to incidents of drink spiking? .....	94
4.3 How many incidents of drink spiking are prosecuted? .....	105
4.4 What evidence is needed to prosecute a drink spiking offender? .....	112
4.5 How is evidence collected? .....	113
4.6 Conclusions .....	116
Section 5.0 Efforts to prevent drink spiking .....	117
5.1 Liquor industry training: Responsible Service of Alcohol course .....	117
5.2 Police and other industry training .....	119
5.3 Other moves to prevent drink spiking .....	119
5.4 Drink Testers .....	119
5.5 Public Campaigns .....	119
5.6 Changing attitudes toward drink spiking .....	125
Section 6.0: Options for trialling information / education kits for stakeholders .....	126
6.1 General duties police officers .....	127

6.2 Sexual assault counsellors.....	130
6.3 Emergency staff in hospitals .....	131
6.4 Liquor industry staff.....	132
6.5 Secondary and tertiary students.....	133
6.6 Mobilising social capital – community groups / organisations.....	134
6.7 Patrons of licensed premises .....	135
Section 7.0 Conclusions and Recommendations.....	136
7.1 Difficulties in researching drink spiking.....	136
7.2 What do we now know about the nature and extent of drink spiking? .....	137
7.3 Has drink spiking been increasing?.....	139
7.4 Improving reporting of drink spiking to police.....	139
7.5 Improving police recording practices.....	140
7.6 Improving verification procedures .....	141
7.7 Improving hospital and forensic data collection .....	142
7.8 Changing attitudes toward drink spiking.....	142
7.9 Amending legislation .....	143
7.10 Prosecution of offenders.....	144
7.11 Underscoring the importance of sexual assault.....	145
7.12 Memory loss .....	146
7.13 Targeting prevention strategies .....	146
References .....	147
Appendix A: List of stakeholders interviewed by Jurisdiction.....	153
Appendix B: Types of drugs commonly associated in the media with drink spiking .....	162

สำหรับเพื่อการศึกษาและอ้างอิงเท่านั้น
 For educational use and reference only