

C O N T E N T S

Foreword.....	i
Jefferson R. Plantilla
Acknowledgment.....	iii
Introduction.....	iv
Felice I. Yeban
Contents.....	vi
Chapter I: Realities and Experiences in Human Rights
Realities in the Asia-Pacific Region.....	2
Jefferson R. Plantilla
The Human Rights Movement in Asia.....	14
Nikhil Roy
Chapter II: Education Framework
I. What is HRE?.....	30
II. What is the difference between human rights work and HRE work? Are all activities related to human rights HRE?.....	30
III. Why is the teaching of HRE important?.....	30
IV. What do we want to achieve in HRE?.....	33
V. What should the content of HRE be?.....	33
Proposed learning indicators to be developed.....	34
VI. How do we teach the content of HRE?.....	35

A Human Rights Pedagogy.....	38
The Learner Centered Approach.....	39
Khursheed Erfan Ahmed
VII. How do we make HRE accessible to as many people?.....	42
VIII. Application of Human Rights Pedagogy Principles.....	44
Use of Simulation Games in Teaching Human Rights.....	44
Rita Kwok
ADIDAS not just for sports.....	48
Arnan De Leon
IX. What is the ideal Human Rights educator?.....	55
A. The Effective Facilitator.....	55
B. Do's and Don'ts of facilitation.....	57
C. The Art of Questioning.....	58
D. Facilitating and Designing Human Rights Training Programs: Some Practical Tips.....	59
 Chapter III: Basic Human Rights Course Content
Teaching for Human Rights.....	62
Felice I. Yeban
Suggested Learning Package for Beginners.....	64
Some Reminders About the Pack.....	64
Module A: Concept and Philosophy.....	66
1. What are human rights?.....	67

Module B: Human Rights Standard.....	70
1. Is there a universally recognized human rights standard?.....	71
2. Is there a recognized human rights standard for the Asia-Pacific region?.....	73
3. Is conflict between rights possible? How do we resolve it?.....	75
4. Are there limitations to the exercise of human rights? Who and what define the limits to the exercise of human rights?.....	77
Module C: Human Rights Violations.....	79
1. When are rights violated?.....	80
2. Are there levels of human rights violations? Who are the human rights violators? What are the different forms of human rights violations?.....	82
3. Who are the most vulnerable sectors of society?.....	84
Women and human rights.....	86
Human rights activists and human rights work.....	88
Children's rights are human rights.....	91
Workers, peasants, and human rights.....	92
Indigenous people's rights.....	93
Module D: Analysis.....	94
1. What are the factors that cause HRV's? Identify socio-cultural, economic, political, ethnic, and gender forces in the society that breed and sustain HRV's.....	95

2. What socio-cultural, economic, political, ethnic, and gender forces are existing in the world that cause HRV's?	97
Module E: Action.....	100
1. What practical knowledge is of help to individuals to avoid illegal detention, arrests, and search and seizure?	101
2. What can people do as a group to stop human rights violations?	103
3. Have there been success stories of people's collective initiatives to defend human rights?	105

Chapter IV: Content Readings

A Review of Human Rights.....	107
Jefferson R. Plantilla
An Introduction to the International Bill of Human Rights.....	113
Samuel M. Soriano
The Asian Perspective on Human Rights.....	122
Yash Ghai
Northern Domination of the Global Economy and its Consequences for the Human Rights of Five-Sixths of Humanity: Human Rights Implications.....	132
Martin Khor
Declaration on the Right to Development.....	146
Bangkok NGO Declaration on Human Rights.....	151
Asian Spirituality and Human Rights.....	160
Mahmoud Ayoub
Limitations of the Human Rights Framework for the Protection of Women.....	167
Florence Butwega

Rights of the Child.....	170
Cynthia Price Cohen

The Role of NGO's in the Protection and Promotion of Human Rights in Asia.....	177
---	-----

For educational use and reference only