

CONTENTS

	Page
INTRODUCTION	1
 PART I. PROTECTION OF THE FAMILY, A CONSTANT CONCERN OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND REGIONAL INSTITUTIONS	 3
 CHAPTER I. PROTECTION OF THE FAMILY AS A WHOLE	 5
I.1 Recognition that the family is the fundamental unit of society and entitled to protection	5
I.2 Right to respect for privacy and family life	5
I.3 Right to marry without restriction, to found a family and to decide on the number and spacing of children	6
I.4 Right to well-being, security and social protection	7
 CHAPTER II. PROTECTION OF THE INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS OF FAMILY MEMBERS	 8
II.1 Rights of women	8
II.1.1 Civil rights of women	8
II.1.1.a Equality in regard to civil rights	8
II.1.1.b Nationality	8
II.1.1.c Consent and minimum age required for marriage	9
II.1.2 Economic, social and cultural rights	9
II.1.2.a Right to work and to equal treatment and remuneration	9
II.1.2.b Right to vocational training	10
II.1.2.c Right to education	10
II.2 Rights of the child	11
II.2.1 Right to life and respect for privacy	11
II.2.2 Respect for the identity of the child, including his or her name, nationality and family relations	11
II.2.3 Respect for the views and the best interests of the child	12
II.2.4 Right to grow up in a proper family environment	12
II.2.4.a Parental guidance is indispensable for the harmonious growth of the child	12

	Page
II.2.4.b The responsibility of parents in regard to the education of their children	13
II.2.4.c The responsibility of the State in regard to the education of children	13
II.2.4.d Separation of the child from his or her family should constitute an exception	13
II.2.5 Refugee children	14
II.2.6 Disabled children	14
II.3 Rights of disabled persons.....	15
II.3.1 Equality of rights and right to respect for human dignity	15
II.3.2 Right to live in the bosom of one's family.....	15
II.3.3 Economic and social rights	15
CHAPTER III. PROTECTION OF THE FAMILY IN SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES	17
III.1 Migrant workers and their families	17
III.1.1 Equal rights, respect and protection of family privacy, security of property.....	17
III.1.2 Economic, social and cultural rights	18
III.1.2.a Equality in employment, right to assistance and information	18
III.1.2.b Right to housing and family reunification.....	18
III.1.2.c Right to transfer of earnings.....	18
III.2 Domestic violence.....	19
PART II. IMPLEMENTATION AT THE NATIONAL LEVEL OF PROVISIONS PROTECTING THE FAMILY AND MONITORING OF THEIR APPLICATION BY THE TREATY BODIES.....	21
CHAPTER I. LAWS AND ADMINISTRATIVE OR OTHER MEASURES ADOPTED BY STATES TO PROTECT THE FAMILY AND IMPLEMENT THE RELEVANT INTERNATIONAL PROVISIONS; SOME EXAMPLES	23
I.1 Protection of the family in general	23
I.2 Protection of women.....	23
I.3 Protection of the child.....	24
I.4 Preventing and combating domestic violence	25
CHAPTER II. MONITORING THE IMPLEMENTATION OF INTERNATIONAL PROVISIONS FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE FAMILY	27
II.1 Comments and recommendations by the treaty bodies.....	27
II.1.1 Human Rights Committee.....	27

	Page
II.1.2 Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights	28
II.1.3 Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women	29
II.2 Complaints procedures	29
II.3 The role of the non-governmental organizations	30
CONCLUSION	31
ANNEXES	35

สำหรับเพื่อการศึกษาและการอ้างอิงเท่านั้น
 For educational use and reference only