

The Migration of Health Professionals

Table of Contents

1 Introduction	1
2 The globalization of health professionals	2
2.1 The health workforce	2
2.2 Globalization of the health workforce	3
2.2.1 The emigration of nurses	3
2.2.2 The emigration of physicians	4
3 The labor market for health professionals	5
3.1 Policies stimulating domestic supply	5
3.2 Policies on the immigration of health professionals	6
3.3 Regulating health professionals: destination countries	7
3.3.1 Legal barriers to entry	7
3.3.2 Barriers and international agreements	9
3.3.3 Natural barriers	10
3.4 Policies in origin countries	10
4 Analyzing the impact of migration on health outcomes and basic health care	11
4.1 The link between emigration and health outcomes	11
4.2 Theoretical considerations	12
4.3 Empirical model	13
4.4 Data, variables and results	14
4.4.1 Domestic and emigrant health workers	15
4.4.2 The impact on health indicators and outcomes	16
4.4.3 Reexamining the evidence: the role of health expenditures	17
5 Predicting flows: issues and measurements	18
5.1 Modeling migration flows: Economic and non-economic factors	19
5.2 A proposed empirical model	20
5.3 Data and variables	22
5.4 Models	22
5.4.1 Results	23
6 Concluding remarks	24
References	25