

Detailed Table of Contents

Foreword vii

Introduction ix

Glossary xi

Part I The Foundations of Journalism 1

Ch. 1 Journalists and the News 1

- The role of the journalist 1
- The importance of the reader 2
- The qualities of good journalists 3
- What is news? 4

Ch. 2 Finding Sources and Story Ideas 7

- Have many sources, but good sources 8
- Keep a source list 10

Ch. 3 Basic Story Structure 11

- Hard news and features 11
- Lead and body 11
- The 5Ws and H 15
- So what? 19
- Context and background 19

Ch. 4 Requirements of Good Stories 22

- Accuracy 22
- Verification 23
- Objectivity 24
- Attribution 26
- On and off the record 28
- Anonymous sources 28
- Balance and fairness 29
- Clarity 30
- Completeness 32

Part II Gathering Information 33

Ch. 5 Observation 33

Ch. 6 Interviewing Techniques 37

- Getting the interview 37

Be prepared 38

Be on time 39

Starting the interview: identify yourself 39

Note-taking and tape recorders 40

Ask "why" and "how" questions 42

Keep questions short 42

Listen, be alert and look carefully 42

Don't be afraid of "stupid" questions 43

Handling "no comment" 43

When a source still doesn't answer 44

Try silence 44

When they talk and talk ... 44

Follow-up questions: getting specifics 44

Difficult questions 45

Profile interviews 46

Ending the interview 46

Ch. 7 Using Documents 47

Always verify 49

And talk to people 49

Part III Putting it All Together 50

The challenge 50

The writing process 50

Ch. 8 The Lead 51

Direct leads 51

Delayed leads 52

Don't "bury" the lead 55

Don't overload the lead 59

What's different here? 59

Choosing the "angle" 61

Ch. 9 Organizing the Story 63

Putting your notes and thoughts together 63

Hard news stories 63

Handling more than one theme 67

Features 68

Other feature structures 75

Part IV Writing it Well 76

Ch. 10 Using Quotations 76

When to quote, when not to quote 76

Don't start with a quotation 79

Who's talking? 79

"Said" is enough 80

Don't change quotations! 80

Watch out for strings of quotations 81

Ch. 11 Tips on Good Writing 82

The foundation: reporting 82

Clarify, simplify 82

Use strong verbs and nouns 83

Show, don't tell 84

Handling numbers 85

Rhythm and variety 85

Tone 87

Rewrite 88

Stylebook 88

Part V Common but Often Troublesome Stories 89

Ch. 12 News Releases 89

Ch. 13 Meetings, Speeches,

News Conferences 97

Meetings 97

Conferences 104

Speeches and news conferences 105

Seek balance 105

Focus on who said what 105

Be prepared 107

And ceremonies too ... 110

Part VI 112

Ch. 14 Writing for Broadcast 112

Only one chance, so be clear 112

Focus on now 113

A few rules 114

Part VII 122

Ch. 15 Ethics 122

The responsibility to be ethical 122

Tell the truth 122

Don't exaggerate or create ill feeling 124

Serve the public, not yourself 124

Don't steal other people's work 125

Be fair 126

Be decent and sympathetic 126

Respect people's right to privacy 127

Respect your sources 127

Discuss with colleagues 127

Code of ethics 128

Part VIII 129

Ch. 16 The Internet 129

What is the Internet? 129

How can the Internet help you? 130

E-mail and news lists 132

But be careful ... 133

Conclusion 135

Further Reading 136

Books 136

Booklets 136

Web sites 137

Acknowledgements 138

About the Authors 139