

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	I
FOREWORD	III
BACKGROUND	V
INTRODUCTION	VII
Power, Corruption and Violence: A Structural Perspective	VII
I. RENEWING ANTI-CORRUPTION PRINCIPLES VIA HUMAN RIGHTS	1
Participation	2
Recommendations	13
Transparency and Access to Information	14
Recommendations	26
Accountability	26
Recommendations	40
II. HUMAN RIGHTS AND SPECIFIC ISSUES OF THE ANTI-CORRUPTION AGENDA	41
Measurement and Indicators	41
Public Procurement	43
Political Financing	46
Provision of Essential Services	49
Recommendations	53
III. THE GENDER PERSPECTIVE	55
More Women, Less Corruption?	56
The Impact of Corruption on Women	58
The Need for Gender Sensitivity in Anti-Corruption Work	59
Recommendations	61
IV. ON TENSIONS BETWEEN ANTI-CORRUPTION AND HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICE	63
Illicit Enrichment and the Principle of Presumption of Innocence, Burden of Proof and the Guarantee against Self-Incrimination	65
Special Investigative Techniques, The Rights to Privacy and Fair Trial, and The Prohibition of Arbitrary Arrest	67
Asset Recovery and Property Rights and the Principle of Presumption of Innocence	68
CONCLUSIONS	71
SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY	73
List of Judgments	81
List of Treaties	82