

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction i

Demographics of Disability 4

Understanding Disability Policy 7

A Word about Language 10

Chapter 1: Disabled Policymaking/Disabled Policy 12

The Paradigm Shift 13

Overview of the Policymaking Process 15

Key Stakeholders 20

Chapter 2: History of Segregation and Stereotypes 30

“The Problem of Feeblemindedness” 34

Assistance and Treatment 38

The Stereotypes Continue 40

Chapter 3: Compensation and Rehabilitation 44

Historical Basis of Compensation 45

Industrial-Related Disabilities 47

Social Security 48

The Disability Insurance Crisis 53

Vocational Education 55

1973 Rehabilitation Act 58

Education for Disabled Children 61

Disability as a Business/Rehabilitation as an Industry	64
Ticket to Work and Work Incentives Improvement Act of 1999	66
Chapter 4: Social and Political Activism	68
Disability Rights as a Social Movement	70
Disability Interest Groups	71
Berkeley and the Independent Living Movement	74
"The Splintered Universe"	76
Coalition Building and Cross-Disability Activism	77
Demonstrations and Protests	80
Litigation	86
Chapter 5: The ADA and the Vision of Equality	90
Developing a National Policy: Early Initiatives	92
Opening the Policy Window	95
Policy Environment	96
Legislative Building Blocks	98
United We Stand	99
Friends in High Places	102
Legislative Process	104
Stealth Campaign	107
Opposition Forces	108
Chapter 6: The ADA as Policy	112
Provisions of the Law	113
Implementation and Rulemaking	115
Enforcement	126
Litigation	128
Key Litigation Issues	135
Fusion of Positive and Negative Rights	142

Chapter 7: Life beyond the ADA: Policy Hot Buttons	144
Reproductive Rights and Technology	144
Not Dead Yet	148
Jerry's Kids and Telethons	152
Christopher Reeve and the Myth of the Supercrip	154
Deaf Culture and Cochlear Implants	156
The Integration Mandate	160
Violence against People with Disabilities	164
Invisible Disabilities	168
Chapter 8: Status Report on Equality	173
Attitudes and Public Opinion	175
Employment	177
Social Integration	180
Barriers to Independence	188
Transportation	196
Health Care	199
Housing	203
Overall Analysis	205
Epilogue	209
Appendices
Appendix A: Suggestions for Further Research	231
Appendix B: Selected Disability Periodicals and Media	253
Appendix C: Annotated Guide to Nongovernmental Disability Organizations	255
Appendix D: Chronology of Important Events in the History and Development of American Disability Policy	270
Notes	278
Index	311