

Contents

Foreword	6
Executive Summary	8
1. Introduction	15
1.1 Background to the Report	16
1.2 Structure of the Report	17
2. The Nature of Economic Development in ASEAN	18
2.1 ASEAN and Uneven Development	18
2.2 The ASEAN Economic Community	19
2.3 ASEAN and the Rise of Business	21
3. ASEAN and Human Rights	24
3.1 ASEAN International Human Rights Commitments, Governance and Rule of Law	25
3.2 Institutional Foundation of Human Rights in ASEAN	31
3.3 The ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights	32
3.4 Women and Children and Migrant Workers	34
3.5 National Human Rights Institutions in ASEAN and Business Related Human Rights Violations	35
4. Impact of Business on Human Rights in ASEAN	39
4.1 Right to Non-discrimination	40
4.2 Right to an Effective Remedy and Accountability	42
4.3 Economic and Social Rights	44
4.4 Labor Rights	47
4.5 Right to a Healthy and Sustainable Environment	49
4.6 Civil and Political Rights	54
4.7 Right to Security of the Person	56
4.8 Rights of Communities or Groups, Especially Indigenous Peoples	59
5. Business and Corporate Accountability in ASEAN	61
5.1 Contradictions of Corporate Social Responsibility in ASEAN: Policy and Practice	61
5.1.1 Asahi Kosei	62
5.1.2 TVIRD	62
5.1.3 Freeport-McMoRan Copper & Gold Inc	63
5.1.4 Xayabouri Hydropower Dam	63
5.2 The ASEAN Socio-Cultural Community (ASSC) and CSR	64
5.3 AICHR, CSR and Human Rights	66

6. Business and Human Rights: Emerging Best Practice	67
6.1 Global CSR Standards and Specific Sector Initiatives	67
6.2 State Responsibility to Redress Human Rights Violations	73
6.3 Business and Human Rights: The Protect-Respect-Remedy Framework	74
6.4 The Business Benefits of Upholding Human Rights	76
7. Conclusions: Corporate Accountability in ASEAN	78
8. Recommendations: Corporate Accountability	80
8.1 Weak Legal Framework: Legal and Institutional Deficits that Fail to Protect and Promote Human Rights	80
Recommendations to Government	80
Recommendations to Business	84
Recommendations to Commercial Banks (further to business above)	86
Recommendations to ASEAN	86
Recommendations to AICHR	87
Recommendations to National Human Rights Institutions (NHRIs)	88
8.2 State-Business Nexus: Addressing Unaccountable Decision-making in ASEAN	89
Recommendations to Government	89
Recommendations to Business	90
Recommendations to ASEAN	91
8.3 Access to Information and Public Participation: Addressing Barriers to Community, Civil Society and Public Participation	92
Recommendations to Government	92
Recommendations to Business	93
Recommendations to AICHR	94
Recommendations to NHRIs	94
8.4 Access to justice and redress	95
Recommendations to Government	95
Recommendations to Business	97
Recommendations to ASEAN	98
Recommendations to NHRIs	98
References	101