

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
1 The Context: Human Rights in the ASEAN Region	1
1. Presence of Constitutions	9
2. Self-determination and Multi-party State	9
3. Use of National Security Laws	9
4. Strong Executive, Weak Judiciary and Malleable Parliament	10
5. Media Freedoms, Freedom of Expression, Freedom of Association, and Dissidence	11
6. Criminal Justice System/treatment of Accused Persons	11
7. Violence against civilians, especially Women and Children	12
8. Treatment of Indigenous Peoples and Minorities	12
9. Equitable Growth, the Poverty Factor and Governance	13
10. Internal Tensions and Armed Conflicts	14
2 The Setting: Initiatives at the National Level	17
A. Countries	21
i. The Philippines	21
ii. Indonesia	43
iii. Thailand	59
iv. Malaysia	79
B. Other Institutions and Processes	97
C. Stakeholders/Actors	101
D. Promotion and Protection?	102
3 Developing Regional Mechanisms: Process and Progress	105
A. Background	105
B. Initial Developments in ASEAN	106
C. Human Rights Activities and Community-Building	112
D. ASEAN Charter	121
E. Drafting the TOR of the ASEAN human rights mechanism	124

F. The TOR of the ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights	126
G. The Other Mechanisms: on Women/Children and on Migrant Workers.....	149
H. Role of Civil Society	162
I. Observations.....	163
4 Concerns and Challenges	169
A. Conceptualization and/or Implementation?	169
B. Promotion and/or Protection?	173
C. International Law and/or National Law?.....	177
D. Non-interference and/or International Jurisdiction?.....	182
E. Institution-building and/or Popularized Process?.....	189
5 ASEAN Inter-Connection	193
A. Effective Mechanisms: National and Regional.....	194
B. Dispute Prevention and Settlement	197
C. An ASEAN Court.....	200
D. People's ASEAN.....	202
E. ASEAN Convention.....	204
F. Systemic Inter-Connection	205
Select Bibliography.....	207
Appendices.....	213
Index.....	251

สำหรับพิจารณาใช้ในทางวิชาการเท่านั้น
For educational use and reference only