

Table of contents

Foreword	iv
Acknowledgements	v
Abbreviations and acronyms	viii
Executive summary	x
1. Introduction	1
2. Research methodology	5
2.1 Research validation	6
3. Normative framework	7
4. Research limitations	9
5. Legal framework and operation of complaint mechanisms	11
5.1 Cambodia	12
5.2 Lao People's Democratic Republic	13
5.3 Malaysia	14
5.4 Myanmar	15
5.5 Thailand	16
5.6 Viet Nam	18
6. Case analysis	21
6.1 Utilization of complaint mechanisms	21
6.1.1 Gender of complainants	22
6.2 Subject of complaints	24
6.3 Mechanism for resolution	27
6.4 Time required for resolution	28
6.5 Remedies awarded for complaints	30
6.5.1 Financial compensation	36
6.6 Sanction of offenders	38
7. Conclusion	41
7.1 Recommendations	42
References	44
Appendix I. Legal assistance outcome record	46

List of boxes

Box 1: NGO assistance for women migrant workers in Thailand	23
Box 2: Assistance for victims of forced labour in Malaysia	25
Box 3: Administrative delays result in a permanent disability	29
Box 4: Remedies for laid-off migrant workers in Malaysia	33
Box 5: Compensation paid to a domestic worker for a workplace injury	36
Box 6: Arrest for trafficking of Cambodian workers on a Malaysian fishing boat	39

List of tables

Table 1: Complaint cases resolved by service providers	5
Table 2: Recommendations for a three-tiered complaint mechanism	8
Table 3: Exchange rates applied	10
Table 4: Assignment of ASEAN labour attachés	14

List of figures

Figure 1: Map of MRC legal assistance service providers (2011–15)	3
Figure 2: Mechanisms available for resolving migrant worker grievances	11
Figure 3: Summary of barriers to accessing justice for migrant workers in South-East Asia	20
Figure 4: Complaint cases and complainants by country	21
Figure 5: Gender of complainants by country	22
Figure 6: Men and women complainants assisted by type of service provider	23
Figure 7: Ten most common types of complaints regionally	24
Figure 8: Five most common types of complaints in Malaysia	25
Figure 9: Five most common types of complaints in Thailand	26
Figure 10: Five most common types of complaints in Cambodia	26
Figure 11: Mechanism for resolving complaints by country	27
Figure 12: Time for resolution by country	28
Figure 13: Remedies awarded for complaints regionally	30
Figure 14: Remedies awarded for complaints in Thailand	31
Figure 15: Remedies awarded to complainants in Malaysia	32
Figure 16: Remedies awarded to complainants in Cambodia	33
Figure 17: Map of most common remedies provided by country	35
Figure 18: Compensation awarded by country	36
Figure 19: Mean and median compensation awarded by country	37
Figure 20: Compensation awarded by type of service provider	38
Figure 21: Sanctions ordered regionally	38
Figure 22: Sanctions ordered by country	39