

Contents

List of figures and tables	x
Note on measurements.....	xii
Acknowledgements.....	xiii
Introduction.....	1
1 Human rights and societies in transition: International context and sources of variation	3
Shale Horowitz and Albrecht Schnabel
Part One: Defining, delimiting, and understanding human rights in societies in transition	27
2 The Universal Declaration of Human Rights as a norm for societies in transition	29
Johannes Morsink
3 Universalism and cultural relativism: Lessons for transitional states.....	52
Richard Lewis Siegel

4 From global norms to local change: Theoretical perspectives on the promotion of human rights in societies in transition	77
Geneviève Souillac
Part Two: Monitoring, promoting, and enforcing human rights	101
5 The United Nations and human rights	103
W. Ofuatey-Kodjoe
6 The consequences of the war crimes tribunals and an international criminal court for human rights in transition societies	119
Paul J. Magnarella
7 International efforts to protect human rights in transition societies: Right, duty, or politics?	141
Albrecht Schnabel
8 Democratic transitions and foreign policy: The United States ..	164
Barbara Ann J. Rieffer and David P. Forsythe
Part Three: Sources of human rights violations and their impact on peace, democratization, and economic development	189
9 Sources and consequences of human rights violations in Iraq ..	191
Jenab Tutunjı
10 Exploring the dynamics of human rights and reform: Iran, Pakistan, and Turkey	218
Mahmood Monshipouri
11 Causes and consequences of variation in post-communist human rights practices	242
Shale Horowitz
12 Human rights and conflict in the former Yugoslavia	266
Aleksandar Resanovic
13 Human rights in transition societies: The cases of Somalia and South Africa	291
Wafula Okumu

14 Human rights and transition societies in Western Africa.....	315
Eghosa E. Osaghae
15 Political development and democratic rights in Greater China .	339
Man-To Leung
16 Human rights in India	363
D.R. Kaarthikeyan
17 Human rights, the military, and the transition to democracy in Argentina and South Korea.....	389
Terence Roehrig
Conclusion	413
18 Protecting human rights in transition societies: Lessons and recommendations	415
Albrecht Schnabel and Shale Horowitz
Abbreviations and acronyms.....	430
Contributors	434
Index	440