
Contents

Foreword.....	viii
Georg Kell
Acknowledgements.....	x
List of contributors.....	xii
List of abbreviations.....	xiv
Part I: Introduction	1
1 Addressing side-effect harm in the business context: Conceptual and practical challenges.....	3
Oddny Wiggen and Lene Bomann-Larsen
Part II: Theoretical discussion	15
2 The idea of double effect – in war and business.....	17
Gregory Reichberg and Henrik Syse
3 Business is not Just War: Implications for applying the principle of double effect to business.....	39
G. J. (Deon) Rossouw

4	State responsibility, corporate responsibility, and complicity in human rights violations.....	50
	Andrew Clapham
5	Reconstructing the principle of double effect: Towards fixing the goalposts of corporate responsibility.....	82
	Lene Bomann-Larsen
6	The principle of double effect, revised for the business context.....	99
	Oddny Wiggen and Lene Bomann-Larsen
	Part III: Case-studies.....	103
7	The principle of double effect and moral risk: Some case-studies of US transnational corporations.....	105
	Patricia H. Werhane
8	An object lesson in balancing business and nature in Hong Kong: Saving the birds of Long Valley.....	121
	Robert E. Allinson
9	Shell in Ogoniland.....	138
	Ogbonna Ike
10	Del Monte Kenya Limited.....	159
	Florence J. A. Oloo
11	The “just war” for profit and power: The Bhopal catastrophe and the principle of double effect.....	175
	Upendra Baxi
12	Dealing with harmful side-effects: Opportunities and threats in the emerging Polish market.....	202
	Julita Sokółowska
13	The Orissa case.....	221
	Heidi von Weltzien Høivik
14	Child labour in the Brazilian citrus sector: The case of Cargill’s double effect.....	245
	Cecilia Arruda

15	A commentary on the principle of double effect	262
	Chris Marsden
Part IV: Conclusion	271
16	Towards improved business practice: Implementing the principle of double effect.....	273
	Oddny Wiggen and Lene Bomann-Larsen
Index	279

สำหรับเพื่อการศึกษาและการอ้างอิงเท่านั้น
For educational use and reference only