

CONTENTS

Foreword	4
Part 1: Introduction	5
1.1 His Majesty King Bhumibol Adulyadej: Strength of the Land	7
1.2 The Royal Initiatives on the Development of the Nation	8
1.3 The Royal Development Projects	24
Part 2: Royal Initiatives on Sufficiency Economy	27
2.1 Economic and Social Problems Facing the Nation	29
2.2 Sufficiency Economy: The Greatest Gift from the King	31
2.3 The Philosophy of Sufficiency Economy: Meaning and Misunderstandings	35
2.4 The Philosophy of Sufficiency Economy and National Development	40
Part 3: Sufficiency Economy and the Royal Development Projects	41
3.1 Integrated Management	43
3.2 Forestry Development	50
3.3 Water Sources Development	65
3.4 Soil Development	68
3.5 Fishery Development	72
3.6 Agricultural Development	76
3.7 Livestock Development	78
Part 4: From Philosophy to Application	81
4.1 The Philosophy of Sufficiency Economy as Life Guidance	83
4.2 The New Theory: The Tool to Achieve Sufficiency Economy for Farmers	92
4.3 Three Levels of Sufficiency Economy	103
4.4 Five Aspects of Sufficiency Economy	104
Part 5: Best Practices of the Philosophy of Sufficiency Economy	109
5.1 Winners of the First National Contest on the Best Practice of the Philosophy of Sufficiency Economy	110
5.2 Winners of the Second National Contest on the Best Practice of the Philosophy of Sufficiency Economy	120
Part 6: Recognition and Universality of the Philosophy of Sufficiency Economy	139
Part 7: Conclusion	157