

Table of contents

Foreword	4
Executive summary	6
Women's rights and domestic violence in Thailand	8
Laying the foundation for change, 2006–2009	10
The first gender sensitivity consultations for Thai judicial personnel, 2008 and 2009	14
Piloting Thailand's women-friendly court: the Thonburi Criminal Court	15
The Criminal Court starts to set a national example	18
Beneficiaries beyond Bangkok: the Tak Provincial Court	20
Inspired to act: the Office of the Judiciary	21
A key partnership: the National Human Rights Commission of Thailand	22
Paving the road ahead	23
Resources	25
Appendix
Box 1: Little Dots, and I Do Hope	27
Box 2: Pim, June and Somjai: the Thonburi Criminal Court at the service of two "little dots"	29
Box 3: CEDAW General Recommendation No. 19	33
Key steps in UN Women's project, from 2006 to 2011	34