

CONTENTS

	page
PREFACE	1
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	2
PART I: CONCEPTUAL OVERVIEW	3
• Introduction.....	3
• The Idea of Reproductive Rights: A Conceptual Overview in History.....	7
• Issues in Reproductive Rights.....	13
• Reproductive Rights as Human Rights: Drawing Connections	16
• States and the Exercise of Reproductive Rights.....	23
PART II: REPRODUCTIVE SELF DETERMINATION AND WOMEN: THE ASIAN EXPERIENCES	27
• Case Study #1: Abortion as a Case of Human Rights Intervention: Building on a Sri Lankan Experience	29
♦ Sri Lanka: The Setting.....	29
♦ Sri Lanka: The Abortion Law.....	31
♦ Profile of Abortion in Sri Lanka.....	32
♦ Human Rights and Abortion.....	34
♦ Profile of Abortion Seekers.....	37
♦ Conservatism and Change: the Abortion Debate, 1995	43
♦ Concluding Remarks.....	45
• Case Study #2: HIV/AIDS Policy as a Reproductive and Human Rights Issue: The Case of Thailand	46
♦ Thailand: The Setting.....	46
♦ Thailand and the Problem of AIDS.....	48
♦ State Response to the Epidemic.....	50

◆ Appraising the Programme: The Human Rights and Reproductive Rights Perspective.....	53
◆ The AIDS Policy and the Reality of Human Rights	59
◆ The AIDS Policy and Reproductive Rights	63
◆ Concluding Remarks	68
• Case Study #3: The Right to Choice and Information as a Determinant of Reproductive Self-Determination: A Study of India.....	69
◆ India: The Setting.....	70
◆ Introduction.....	72
◆ Availability and Choice in the Indian Family Planning Programme (1950s-1980s).....	76
◆ Legalisation and Contraception in India.....	81
◆ Women and Informed Choice in Contraception.....	85
◆ Concluding Remarks.....	88
CONCLUSION.....	89

สำหรับเพื่อการศึกษาและการอ้างอิงเท่านั้น
For educational use and reference only