

Contents

Acknowledgments	i
Contents	iii
Symposium Opening Address	1
Professor Dr. Soothiporn Jittmitraparb, Vice-President for Research, Chulalongkorn University
Special Plenary I: The Challenge of Rural Sufficiency in the Face of Globalization	3
Sustainable Livelihoods and the Sufficiency Economy	5
Dr. Tariq Banuri, Director, Swedish Environment Institute
Human Development through Sufficiency Economy	19
Professor Dr. Apichai Puntasen, Dean, Faculty of Management Science, Ubon Ratchathani University
Globalization and Sustainable Development	25
Thanpuying Dr. Suthawan Sathirathai, President, Governance for Social Development and Environment Institute (GSEI)
Open Q&A Session	28
Livelihoods and Human Security in Rural Asia: Challenges for Sociology	46
Plural Society and Non-traditional Security: A Case of Myanmar	47
Professor Mya Than, Visiting Scholar, Institute of Security and International Studies, Chulalongkorn University
The Three Critical Issues of Rural China and New Socialist Countryside	49
Professor Li Guoqing, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences
Natural Disaster and Human Vulnerability: Issues in Developing Disaster Prone Areas in Sri Lanka	59
Professor Anoja Wickramasinghe, University of Peradeniya

Food Security, Malnutrition and Poverty Professor Rosiady Sayuti, University of Mataram	69
Diversification in Agricultural Production and in Non-Farm Activities in Rural Java: A Case Study in Yogyakarta Special Region Professor Haruo Kuroyanagi, Sugiyama Jogakuen University	71
Gender Responsive Technology for Poverty Alleviation in Thailand Professor Kanjapat Korsieporn, Social Research Institute, Chulalongkorn University	85
Rural Poverty and Family Crisis in Korea Professor Oakla Cho, Sogan University	89
Open Q&A Session	95
Special Public Plenary II: Economic Development, Human Security and Multiculturalism in Rural Asia with Reference to the Work of the Thai National Reconciliation Commission	101
Reflections on the Thai National Reconciliation Commission Professor Dr. Ammar Siamwala, Thailand Development Research Institute	103
Culture and Ethnicity: A Comparative Analysis of Two Cases Studies in Northern and Southern Thailand Professor Dr. Amara Pongsapich, Chulalongkorn University	111
Cultural Politics and Violence in Southern Thailand Professor Dr. Wattana Sugunnasil, Prince of Songkla University	119
Open Q&A Session	131
Concluding Remarks Associate Professor Surichai Wun'Gaeo, Chulalongkorn University	141
Program Agenda	145
Biographies	147