

CONTENTS

ABOUT THE BOOK	vi
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	viii
THE CONTRIBUTORS	ix
I. WELCOME SPEECH	xiv
Yohei Sasakawa, Chairman of The Nippon Foundation
II. KEYNOTE ADDRESS	xv
Resil B. Mojares, Professor Emeritus, University of San Carlos, Cebu City
III. OVERVIEW	xxi
Mary Racelis, Workshop Director and Lisandro E. Claudio, Deputy Workshop Director
IV. PAPERS
Panel 1: Violence, Memory and Social Catharsis	1
Remembering the Legacies of the Marcos Dictatorship: The Formation of Historical Memory and the Struggle for Justice in the Post-Marcos Period Wahyudi
Pika-Boo: Public Performance Art works as an act of mutual forgiveness and understanding of the Second World War and the atomic bomb incidents Too Chee Hung	9
Towards Peace and Reconciliation: Case Studies of Peace Museums in Japan and the Philippines Patporn Phoonthong	20
Post-Conflict Institution in Support of Reintegration and the Peace Process: Notes from a Field Research in Mindanao of the Philippines Lambang Trijono	32
Panel 2: Expanding Space – From Exclusion to Inclusion	42
In the Name of Civil Society: Land, Peace Initiatives and Environmentalism in Muslim Areas of Thailand and the Philippines Fadzilah Majid Cooke
Documentary Film on Progressive Islam in Indonesia and its Impact on Muslim Women Norhayati Binti Kaprawi	52
Upholding Feminist Principles in the Era of Globalization: Challenges faced by Women's Activists in Finding Balance between Core Values and Organizational Practices in Women's Movement-based Organizations Susanna George	60
Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) in Promoting Child Rights: Comparisons between Thailand and the Philippines Syongsay Changpitikoun	72

Panel 3: Cultures and Identities in Transition I

- Shifting Phases of the Art Scenes in Malaysia and Thailand: Comparing Colonized and Non-colonized countries 78
Noriko Ishimatsu
- Image and Identity: A Study on the Images of the Virgin Mary Clad in a Local Dress in the Philippines 88
Yuria Furusawa
- The Aesthetics of Filmmaking as Ways of Seeing in Asia: Experimental Documentaries in Japan and Thailand 98
Nguyen Trinh Thi
- Understanding the Indigenization and Hybridization of the Science Curriculum: The Model of Culturally Relevant Science Education in Thailand and Japan 108
Vicente C. Handa
- Acculturation between Two Societies: Vietnamese Contract Migrant Workers in Japan 120
Khuat Thu Hong

Panel 4: Cultures and Identities in Transition II

- The Reflection of Indigenous Peoples' Changing Identity in the Social, Cultural and Historical Contexts in the Cities of Sarawak 130
Albertus Yustinus Imas
- MBAL ALUNGAY BISSALAN*: Our Voices Shall Not Perish 141
 Listening, Telling, Writing of the Sama Identity and Its Political History in Oral Narratives
Mucha-Shim Bahaman Quiling
- Conserving Linguistic, Cultural and Biological Diversity: Lessons from the Chong Language Revitalization Project in Thailand 149
Toshiyuki Doi
- The Representation of Cultural Diversity in Primary Education in the Philippines 158
Truong Huyen Chi
- Diversity That Sells: The Success Story of Malaysia's Tourism Branding "Truly Asia" 165
Firly Afwika

Panel 5: Post-Development Paradigms in Asia I

- Participatory Governance of Land and Water Resources: The Satoyama System of Japan 178
Mochamad Indrawan
- Re-building Japan: Still-photographic Documentary Project on the Resilience of Rice Cultivation 188
Tawatchai Pattanaporn

The Dynamics of the Mining Industry in Asia and its Impacts on the People and the Environment: A Photo Documentary Project
Henri Ismail 197

Alternative Power Production for Sustainability and Justice for Local Communities 204
Pornsiri Cheevapattananuwong

Sanctuary: Genius Loci and Employment in Community-based Tourism 218
An Investigation of Community-Based Theater, Tourism and the Creative Industries in Thailand, Japan and Indonesia, as Emerging Models of Social Entrepreneurships
Lutgardo L. Labad

Panel 6: Post-Development Paradigms in Asia II

The Small Theatre-Soft Power: The Means to Build Up Ideal Society 231
Pradit Prasartthong

Linking the Movements of the Urban Poor in ASEAN and Japan to Create Land and Housing Justice 244
Abhayuth Chantrabha

Social Movements and Democracy: Experiences from the Philippines and Thailand 259
Somchai Phatharathananunth

Strengthening Self-determination for Social Transformation through Participatory Approaches in Pro-poor Agri-environmental Research and Development: Case Examples from Thailand 268
Kam Suan Pheng

V. APPENDICES

Appendix I: Workshop Schedule 282

Appendix II: Workshop Participants 284

Appendix III: Abstracts of Papers 287

VI. CONTACT DETAILS 297

Partner Institutions

Regional Coordinating Institution

The Nippon Foundation