

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	6
Foreword: Legal pluralism in Southeast Asia – insights from Nagaland Gam A. Shimray	8
1. Divers Paths to Justice: legal pluralism and the rights of indigenous peoples in Southeast Asia – an introduction Marcus Colchester	17
2. Legal pluralism in Sarawak: an approach to customary laws on their own terms under the Federal Constitution Ramy Bulan	40
3. Legal pluralism: the Philippine experience Jennifer Corpuz	66
4. Native customary land rights in Sabah, Malaysia 1881-2010 Amity Doolittle	81
5. Asserting customary land rights in the Chittagong Hill Tracts, Bangladesh: challenges for legal and juridical pluralism Devasish Roy	106
6. Legal pluralism in Indonesia's land and natural resource tenure: a summary of presentations Myrna A. Safitri	126
7. Securing rights through legal pluralism: communal land management among the Karen people in Thailand Prasert Trakansuphakon	133
About the authors.....	158
Bibliography.....	162