

C O N T E N T S

PREFACE	i
INTRODUCTION	1
CONCLUDING STATEMENT	9
THE ROLE OF HUMAN RIGHTS LAWYERS IN ASIA	23
[Yash Ghai]
The Context of Human Rights in Asia	23
The Role of Human Rights Lawyers	29
Conclusion	36
STRENGTHENING DEMOCRACY: GOING BEYOND REPRESENTATIVE ELECTORAL DEMOCRACY - IS THERE A ROLE FOR LAWYERS?	39
[Neelan Tiruchelvam]
Integrity of the Electoral Process	41
Participation Beyond Representation	44
Problems of Transparency and Accountability	47
Conclusion	51

DEVELOPMENT POLICY AND HUMAN RIGHTS 55

[Virginia B.Danan]

Spelling Out Development 55

The Human Impact of Structural Adjustment

Programmes 59

The Promotion of Human Rights in Development 66

The Challenge of Development as a Human Right 70

NETWORKING BY HUMAN RIGHTS LAWYERS

IN THE REGION 73

[Johannes L. Ignacio]

The Challenges of Globalization 73

The Importance of Lawyers in the Present Context.... 75

Alternative and Mainstream Lawyers 76

Networking Concepts and Principles 79

Towards a Rational Approach to Networking

in the Legal Profession 82

Networking by Lawyers: The Philippines Experience. 85

Conclusions and Recommendations 89

ANNEXES 91

List of Papers Submitted by Participants 93

List of Participants 94

Resource Persons - Presenters of Papers 99